Mayor Excell has spoken with Mr. Corey regarding the lack of parking space in the Village. Mr. Corey is looking into obtaining grants to create a new Village parking lot. Mayor Excell has thought about alternate parking, however, when he spoke to Marc Tucker about it, Marc pointed out that the streets would not be as clean as they should be.

Diane Rydzy, the co-owner of Rydzy's Market, stated that the days that the Opera House has activities, there is no parking for her customers. It was suggested that two designated spots be marked as store parking only. Excell didn't see any reason why perhaps four parking spots couldn't be designated as 15 minute parking on a permanent basis. The downside would be that Marc would need to be paid overtime to patrol the parking spots on the days that the Opera House had activities going on. Trustee Hayes offered to talk to the Patty from the Opera House regarding the situation. Trustee Piliero said short term parking was a good idea. Trustee
